Personal Statement

As a reminder, the personal statement is an essential component of the initial application stage. Therefore, success at this stage is dependent on your personal statement satisfying the requirements detailed below.

Please provide a personal statement between 400 and 600 words explaining how your personal attributes and qualities meet the wider criteria for being a Maths Scholar.

Specifically, your personal statement must cover each of the following four points:

1. Your motivation for pursuing a career as a mathematics teacher.
2. Your strategies for igniting the interest of secondary school students in mathematics.
3. Your reasons for aspiring to become a Maths Scholar.
4. Describe how your journey as a Maths Scholar will enhance your initial teacher training year

Important Information

- It's imperative to address all the points outlined above; failure to do so will result in the rejection of your application.
- Please be aware that any personal statement falling below the 400-word threshold will be rejected automatically.
- As this personal statement is specific to the Mathematics Teacher Training Scholarships, we require a minimum of 200 words to be dedicated to points 3 and 4, as listed above.
- For clarification, a Maths Scholar is an individual who has received a Mathematics Teacher Training Scholarship.
- The Maths Scholarships Team maintains the discretion to assess whether your personal statement aligns with the aforementioned criteria.

We strongly encourage you to incorporate any relevant experiences, such as school teaching or observations, employment, interactions with young people, volunteer work, as well as your interests and hobbies, to strengthen your application. However, when integrating these experiences, it's vital to establish a clear connection to how they have deepened your understanding of ways to inspire others with your passion and developed your insights into the teaching and learning of mathematics.

A well-considered personal statement, which fully addresses the requirements listed above, is a vital component in progressing to the next stage of assessment for the Mathematics Teacher Training Scholarship. Therefore, we strongly recommend dedicating ample time and effort to carefully craft your personal statement.*

Reasonable Adjustments

Under the Equality Act 2010, a person has a disability if they have a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long-term effect on their ability to carry out normal day to day activities.

The Mathematics Teacher Training Scholarship Scheme assures that disabled applicants will be invited to an Assessment who are deemed to meet the following from the Scholarship criteria:

- eligibility for student finance
- qualifications
- the wider criteria for becoming a Maths Scholar

The wider criteria for becoming a Maths Scholar is assessed by the personal statement, which has its own specific requirements.

If you consider yourself disabled under the Equality Act 2010, please provide details of any reasonable adjustments that can be made for you, if invited to an Assessment.

When requesting reasonable adjustments, please ensure that you have in place, and can provide if required to, appropriate and recent medical evidence, or, in the case of a learning difference such as dyslexia or dyspraxia, a post 16 diagnostic assessment completed by an Educational Psychologist or assessor with a suitable practicing certificate.

Maximum 300 words allowed

Availability

Are there any dates or time periods that you would NOT be able to attend an Assessment (e.g. booked holidays, examination periods, work experience, school placements, graduation ceremony, religious observance). Please give all known dates up to and including 31 August 2024.

This information will be used, if required, to allocate you a mutually convenient assessment date.

5. Referee Details

Please provide the details of an individual who can comment on the following:

- Predicted degree classification (if you are due to graduate the current academic year)

- Why they think you are suitable for a career as a secondary mathematics teacher, referring to; your personal qualities, i.e. enthusiasm, communication skills (verbal and written), leadership potential, teamwork ability, your interest and commitment to education/teaching and your love of mathematics and desire to share this with others
- Provide any other comments they feel may support your application

If you are due to graduate this year, the referee must be your academic tutor who can verify your predicted degree classification. If you're not sure who to ask to be your referee, read our References – Who Should You Nominate? article.

We do not accept referees who are friends or family members. We also cannot accept references from other candidates applying to the Mathematics Teacher Training Scholarships.

If you are successful in being put through to the second stage of the application process, Assessment, your referee will be contacted at this point. As such, please obtain their permission for being contacted prior to submitting this form.

If successful in being awarded a Maths Scholarship, the award is also dependant on us receiving a reference for you.

6. Purpose of the processing and legal basis for the processing

We collect and use your information to process your scholarship application and administer the scholarship scheme and such processing is necessary to take steps at your request prior to entering into a scholarship arrangement with you and/or for performance of that arrangement.

We will share your personal data with The Department of Education (“DfE”) who may retain and use your information for the purposes of teacher recruitment and retention statistics. The legal basis for the DfE processing this data is that such processing is necessary for the DfE to perform a task in the public interest pursuant to Section 14 of the Education Act 2002.

The DfE manage the Get into Teaching Service. This service helps individuals get into teaching by providing tailored advice and information about teacher training, teaching as a career and events. By sharing your personal data with DfE, you may be contacted by one of their Teacher Training Advisers. The Teacher Training Advisers support aspiring teachers, and guide them through the journey in pursuing an initial teacher training application. The Adviser team are experienced former teachers, and are able to support candidates who apply to the scholarship programme. Your data will only be processed in this way if you give your consent to being registered with the DfE Get into Teaching Service.

We may also share your details with the DfE to enable them to contact you for the purposes of research and evaluation of the Scholarships programme to understand the impact and effectiveness of the programme in achieving its objectives and to identify potential improvements to the customer journey. Your data will only be processed in this way if you give your consent.

We also use web SMS Messaging by Intellisoftware to contact you on the mobile number provided in your form. For Intellisoftware's privacy policy, please see their website:
